Rainfall below normal for July

Rainfall was slightly below normal summer-time patterns for the month of July, according to the South Florida Water Management District.

An average of 3.2 inches of rain has been recorded throughout the District in July, two inches below the normal of 5.33 inches.

Ground water conditions throughout the District are good, with aquifer supplies at normal levels.

Officials say the capacity of the Everglades and Water Conservation Areas continues to be maximized. The level of Lake Okeechobee is 15.5, nearly two feet above the average of 13.54 feet.

Toll-free line to commissioners

The Board of County Commissioners' Citizens Service Center now has a toll-free call-in number for County residents residing in the Glades area and in the Delray Beach/Boca Raton area. The new toll-free number is 800-4314.

The Citizens Service Center is the office in the County's Public Affairs Department which citizens can call for assistance in accessing County services obtaining information regarding County government matters.

New voter registration cards are in the mail

The colorful new red, white and blue voter registration cards are in the mail.

The cards will list the voter's precinct and polling location as well as the Congressional, State Senate, State House and County Commission Districts in which they are eligible to vote.

Due to Legislative Reapportionment, the Elections Office had to change the boundaries of over 200 of the county's 317 precincts as well as create over 100 new precincts. Many voters will find they have a new precinct number and a new polling location. Most voters also have changes in the numbers of the Congressional, State Senate, State House and County Commission Districts in which they are eligible to vote. Voters are urged to check all information on their new cards closely. They should also destroy any old voter registration cards in their possession.

Any registered voter who does not receive a card by Monday, August 17th, should call the Elections Office at 996-4800. The Voter Registration Card is not going to be forwarded by the Post Office. Any voter who has changed their address from what is listed on their voter registration record should notify the Elections Office by filling in the back of their old card and mailing it to the Elections Office at 301 North Olive Avenue, Room #105, West Palm Beach.

Glades General may become non-profit

By Brenda Bunting

Belle Glade—Steps have been taken by Glades General Hospital to become a private, non-profit corporation.

Hospital Administrator Neil Whipkey said with the instability of the Palm Beach County Health Care District and other problems, he felt it was in the hospital's best interest to lay the groundwork to become 501 C-3.

"This puts us in a position to reorganize in a minutes notice," he said.

Glades General is the only hospital in the county that is owned directly by the Health Care District.

In a meeting Monday, the board voted to authorize the expenditure of money for legal and accounting services to research the issues and prepare bylaws, articles of incorporation and lease and management agreements.

"Our inability to control our own destiny has come to the forefront," Mr. Whipkey told the board.

He noted such actions by the Health Care District as slashing GGH's capitol budget to zero and not supporting the hospital's move to offer obstetrical services; even though initially it was HCD Executive Director Doris Ausbrook who told them to proceed with the plans.

"Every time we turned around we had to say 'Mother may I,'" he said. "That didn't put us on a level playing field."

Board member Sandra Chamblee, who represents the Southwest Subdistrict on the Health Care District Board, will be replaced soon and GGH will have no representation on the board. "The big unknown is what has driven us to this," Mrs. Chamblee said.

"We have children, grandchildren...we have to be sure that there will be good health care in the Glades," Subdistrict Chairman Iris Tanner told the board.

Sugar companies told they underpaid cane cutters by millions

By Brenda Bunting
Editor

Sugar growers plan to appeal a ruling that came down last week that they underpaid cane cutters by $51 million dollars in back wages and interest.

Palm Beach County Circuit Judge Lucy Brown ruled last week that off-shore cane cutters in the H-2A program should be paid a minimum rate per ton rather than by the task rate. The dispute covers the four seasons from 1987 to 1990.

The task rate guarantees workers are paid a minimum of $5.30 per hour plus provides incentive pay for higher productivity.

The companies affected include U.S. Sugar Corporation, Okeelanta Corp., Osceola Farms Sugar Cane Growers Cooperative of Florida and Atlantic Sugar Co. The settlement is said to be the largest wage judgment in state history.

Sugar Cane Growers agreed to totaling $7.4 million, including $2.1 million in interest if Judge Brown's Summary Judgement Order is not overturned on appeal.

U.S. Sugar agreed to $14 million, $4 million of which is interest. The Fanjul family, who own or control Okeelanta, Osceola and Atlantic Sugar have agreed to pay $29.3 million.

"We believe if the case had gone to trial, the outcome would have been different," said Barbara Miedema, Public Relations spokesperson for the Sugar Cane Growers Cooperative.

An appeal will be filed within 30 days with the District Court of Appeals.

Belle Glade—Two incumbents and a newcomer to politics have filed to run for two seats up on the September ballot.

Incumbent Daniel Bythwood is facing opposition from 42-year-old Ed Rongione.

Bythwood, age 63 of 1217 S.W. Avenue B Place, is seeking his third term of office.

He works for the Palm Beach County School Board and is a Specialist in Student Services.

Ed Rongione

He has lived in Belle Glade for 39 years and he and his wife Eloise have seven children, five boys and two girls. Four of their children still live at home.

Mr. Bythwood says he believes many improvements have been made in the city since he has been on the commission, including road improvements, new housing, a new park and demolition of the old loading ramp.

Mr. Bythwood says he doesn't believe he would advocate increasing taxes, saying "people are taxed enough. We don't need new taxes."

He said the city has also come a long way in housing in the past six years.

"We have been tearing down dilapidated housing and replacing them through HCD (Housing and Community Development) funds," he said.

Hopson to head up Housing Authority board in Pahokee

Pahokee—Vera Hopson will head the new Pahokee Housing Authority Board as Chairperson. Mrs. Hopson, a six month veteran of the board said, "I believe we can put the past where it belongs and move forward now. God is alive and we are able."

David Rodriguez, the first Hispanic board member will act as Vice-Chairperson. Mr. Rodriguez is employed by South Bay Growers as personnel director.

Omega Graham, a newly appointed board member, is a tenant at Fremd Village and represents the tenants' voice on the board. She will act as Assistant Secretary Treasurer.

Howard Harold is another new board member. Mr. Harold, a Pahokee resident, was appointed to be a trustee on the PHA pension board. He will serve on the pension board along with David Rodriguez and Vera Hopson.

One board seat remains empty. Mayor Ramon Horta is considering several candidates to fill the last position and an announcement is expected to come soon.

Executive Director Julia Hale introduced the new board members and another new employee, Deputy Assistant Director John Barrett.

Miss Hale said, "I welcome the new board members. I really appreciate Mayor Horta's efforts during this transition. He is the first mayor to take a personal interest in the Pahokee Housing Authority and make some major changes. He has made a difference in the attitude of the whole City of Pahokee. We are lucky to have him."

She went on to tell the new commissioners that several law suits were pending against the PHA and there needed to be some major decisions made at their next meeting. She invited the commissioners to stop by the office and familiarize themselves with the PHA and staff.

"If you have any questions at all, I will be here to assist you along the way," she concluded.

Flood control important in SWIM

Fourth installment in a series

By Twila Valentine

The Lake Okeechobee Surface Water Improvement and Management (SWIM) Plan is currently being revised and updated according to state mandate. The 1989 Interim Plan contained only two elements. In the proposed draft released in June, five more elements have been added to the plan. One of those elements is the flood control element.

Lake Okeechobee has been an integral part of the design for flood protection for central and south Florida since the Central and South Florida Flood Control project was formed in the late 1940's. The system was designed with the lake as the major floodwater retention reservoir for agricultural interests and for the many lowlying lakeside communities around the lake and in the Upper Kissimmee River Basin.

Construction of a levee around the lake was started soon after the devastating loss of life and property from the 1928 hurricane. The present levee system is at a height between 33 and 45 feet. Currently, the most permitted in the lake is 17.5 feet. The likelihood of the water ever topping the levee are quite small. However, most of the levee and culverts passing through the dike are 50 years old or more, and very little maintenance has been done since the original construction. As a result, there are some concerns that improvements are needed to provide additional protection. Seepage beneath the dike is also a concern. There have been reports that during high water events, evidence of seepage has Pahokee—Pahokee City Commissioners voted unanimously to increase the water and sewer rates 5% to balance the operating budget at last week's city commission meeting.

The commission also set the new millage rate at 10 mills for this year. Even though commissioners last week said there would be no new taxes, the rate was set in the event of unforeseen emergencies that could arise. Vice-Mayor Norman said, "We do not anticipate any new taxes this year but we set the rate at 10 mills as a safety net for the city."

Mayor Ramon Horta said, "This is pretty much what other cities do as a precautionary measure."

Glade resident for 20 years. He and his wife Tina have two children, Brad, age 15 and Jason, age 17.

They own and operate Glades Travel Service and Averill's Hallmark.

"I think the time has come when we've got some critical decision to make," Mr. Rongione said. "The commission could use some fresh legs and fresh ideas."

"We need to bring some commerce and jobs and a tax base to the city," he added.

Harma Miller, age 47 is running for her fourth term on the commission.

She and her husband Henry Miller own Miller's Mortuary. She is currently president of the Black Caucus of Local Elected Officials and is on the Florida League of Cities committee. She has served on the Urban Administration Committee on that board as well as the Quality Cities Task Force.

She also serves on the Tri-Cities League and on the Western Communities Council.

"I am enthusiastic and optimistic about the City's projects and problems

In other business the commissioners passed resolution 92-34, a resolution transferring excess funds from the water and sewer enterprise account to the general fund capital improvement account.

City Manager Ken Schenck advised commissioners that Betty Waldron with Quest Productions has received a Children's Services Grant and will be providing theater training to Pahokee Children.

"The kids will come in specific age groups spend about six weeks in theater training and then put on a production at the end of their training course," said Mr. Schenck. This will take place at the Prince Theater and will help revitalize the theater and make it an asset to the city according to Schenck.

respectively - more housing, health services, affirmative action, education, employment, the environment, all will improve over the next decade," she said.

"I believe everyone should participate in the political process in order to keep our freedoms in focus and our country great. Those of us who believe that strongly, offer ourselves for service."

The election will be September 2. If there is a runoff, it will be held September 22. Qualifying ends August 14.

been noted in fields on the landward side of the dike. The culverts passing through the dike also need to be repaired or replaced.

Since the flood project was completed in the early 1970's, the water control works and structures have never been tested by a severe storm event such as the 1928 hurricane and the storms in the 1940s which caused such devastating flooding.

Water district officials have stated in the proposed draft that the present level of flood protection needs to be reviewed and reevaluated. There is also a need to provide urban, agricultural and other developments of the level of flood protection that the region can offer.

•Kissimmee River Basin. Although the Kissimmee River restoration plan calls for the removal of three of the river's five flood control structures, the district maintains that the project should not increase flood water discharges, and the level of flood protection should be maintained.

•Lake Istokpoga Basin. Currently there are several problems related to flood control with the basin. The control structure on the Istokpoga Canal leading to the Kissimmee River has deteriorated and could fail. The capacity of the canal is an unknown because of shoaling and an overgrowth of vegetation. And, there is concern by district officials about the ability of the canal to continue functioning as an outlet for the basin with the Kissimmee River Restoration project. Flood protection for the basin is largely unknown.

The goal of the plan is to "Ensure that adequate flood water storage capacity and outlet capacity is maintained in the lake to meet the flood protection needs of appropriate drainage basins and minimize downstream impacts."

To achieve this goal, the plan proposes to provide a balance between the competing objectives of flood protection, water supply, protection of the lake's environmental resources and its downstream estuaries. To achieve this, the district will work with other agencies to develop trade-offs between competing lake management objectives.

The district has requested the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers (COE) to initiate environmental and economic impact studies necessary to allow the implementation of an alternative lake management schedule. These studies are due to be completed in December 1993. The COE is currently working on a dike improvement program. About 30 percent was completed and it was interrupted. The district will ask the Corps to reevaluate the program and continue the remediation efforts. The district is also asking the COE to follow up on their funding request for $300,000 to study the seepage problem.

The proposed plan also suggests the development and implementation of a program for aquatic weed maintenance at the inflow and outflow structures and canals.

Once the present level of flood protection is evaluated, the next step proposed by the district is to maintain or improve the level of flood protection. The district will provide technical and expert assistance to local governments in their development of a county-wide comprehensive stormwater master plan, such as it is doing in Okeechobee County.

Next, we'll look at the recreation element of the proposed SWIM Plan.

between the worker and employer does not include any language indicating workers will be paid a minimum rate per ton of cane they cut," said Cooperative President George H. Wedgworth.

"However, Clearance Orders filed through the U.S. Department of Labor and Florida State Employment Service describe the job including an estimate that workers would cut about eight tons of cane per day over the course of the season. The wording prescribed by the Department of Labor provides the workers with a general appreciation of the difficulty involved in performing the job."

He said that records audited by the U.S. Department of Labor indicate that cane cutters were always paid at least $5.30 per hour, the federally mandated Adverse Effect Wage Rate for the period in question and that statistics show cutters at the Cooperative averaged between $6.15 and $7.17 per hour under the task-rate system from 1987 to 1990.

Judge Brown contends the workers should have been paid $5.30 per ton instead of per hour. "We are confident that once we have an evidentiary hearing, our position will prevail and the outcome of the hearing will be moot," Mr. Wedgworth said.

Flo-Sun will build two co-generation plants in Glades

Flo-Sun, Inc. has received zoning approval from the Palm Beach County Commission to build cogeneration plants at two sugar mills which will produce 112 megawatts of electricity each year, enough to power 70,000 homes.

The commission passed a zoning variance that will allow the mills to replace existing boilers with state-of-the-art facilities that will greatly increase efficiency from the burning of bagasse (sugarcane residue) and wood wastes.

"This is a win-win situation for the environment, for the people of South Florida and for the company," said Flo-Sun Vice President Jorge Dominicus.

"Not only will the new facilities provide environmental benefits in terms of air emissions and water use, they will burn renewable fuels, which will help reduce the amount of wood clippings that go to landfills and will decrease the need for stand-alone power plants," Mr. Dominicus said.

In addition, the facilities will generate approximately $60 million in construction projects over the next two years, will create 90 full-time jobs and will generate $5 million in additional property taxes each year.

One facility producing 70 megawatts of electricity will be built at the company's Okeelanta sugar mill in South Bay. The other, of 42 megawatts, will be constructed at the Osceola sugar mill in Pahokee.

The mills presently burn bagasse, the fibrous residue left after the sugar is squeezed out of sugarcane, to produce steam and electricity to run the plants. The cogeneration facilities will burn the same fuel much more efficiently, creating steam at much higher pressures that will be used to power electrical generators. During the off-season when cane is not being harvested, the facilities will burn wood chips that otherwise might go to landfills.

Officials say the renewable fuels will displace the equivalent of 530,000 tons of coal or 2,050,000 barrels of oil that would be burned each year to produce the same amount of electricity.

Stepping into fitness...Aerobics instructor Michele Young leads a class though "Step Aerobics" at the Belle Glade Civic Center. Classes have been averaging about 30 students a session.

City of Belle Glade offering Step aerobics for all ages

By Brenda Bunting

Belle Glade-Getting in shape has taken a new twist with the introduction of Step Aerobics by the City of Belle Glade.

Low impact and high on cardiovascular benefits, the new program has drawn young and old alike.

"This is a new group of people we haven't reached before," said Mike Underwood, Parks and Recreation Director for the City.

The classes have drawn such a large turnout that Instructor

Michele Young said it has been expanded to four days a week. The fitness program is taught on Monday mornings at 9 a.m. for beginners and at 6 p.m.

On Tuesday's there is an advanced Step Reebok aerobics at 7 p.m. and Wednesday's beginning at 5:45 p.m. and again at 7 p.m.

Thursday's class begins at 5:45 p.m. and is an extended Step-Aerobics Combo.

The city has purchased 30 "steps" for the classes, which averaging 30 per class.

Ms. Young is certified by ACE, the American Council on Exercise, and is a registered nurse at Glades General Hospital.

She credits Mr. Underwood and City of Belle Glade Manager Lomax Harrelle for promoting the program.

The classes are taught at the Belle Glade Civic Center. There is a small charge per class and aerobic shoes are mandatory.

Some of the classes are working with one to three pound weights, which would also have to be provided by the student.

HEADACHES

Also called sick headaches, a typical migraine attack begins with a dull throbbing ache in one area of the head and progresses to a piercing pain. These tortuous attacks may be preceded by a change in the field of vision - a flickering before the eyes, flashes of light or a partial blocking of the vision. They are sometimes accompanied by nausea or vomiting. They are seldom relieved by aspirin. Their duration is from 2 to 48 hours.

Misspelled word in The Sun

Yes, I'm a 10th grade student at Glades Central High School and I think you should hire me because I can spell the word "debris."

Editor's note: I'm pleased to see high school students are reading The Sun. The last time I spoke to a class of junior high students, I was concerned when only three out of a class of about 35 read a newspaper. Thank you for catching our mistake. We have no excuse for misspelling common words, especially since our computers have a "spell check" feature. We'll try to do better.

Forty out of sixty-four Cuban refugees who escaped the Castro regime and came to Colorado as children without their parents reunited in Miami last Saturday after 32 years apart. The group was sent to an orphanage in Colorado in 1960 until their parents arrived from Cuba, many about a year after their children.

Father James Friel visited with Belle Glade resident Olga Pichardo Hayes at the reunion held in Miami last week. Her father, Gaspar Pichardo said it was an emotional reunion and the group were like children again. See Rincon latino for the rest of the story.

Guest Editorial

By Bill Clark (D-Lauderdale Lakes)

Editor's note: Eight candidates are running for the 23rd Congressional District seat. The 23rd District is one of the newly drawn districts that resulted from reapportionment. This district has no incumbent. Parts of our area are also under District #16 where 3 candidates are running.

In order to give our readers an opportunity to get to know all the candidates, we have asked them to write, in their own words, who they are, why they are running and what issues they will address if elected. In the next four weeks before the election we will feature the candidates. Hopefully, the information they give will help our readers make informed decisions.

I have served for ten years in the Florida House of Representatives. During my five terms in office, the legislation I am most proud of includes:

1. The Florida Alzheimer's Act of 1985, which provided monies to fund research and treatment for the victims and families of Alzheimer's and other memory disorders that so often strike the elderly.
2. The State's acquisition of the Fort Mose settlement in St. Augustine, Florida, considered by archaeologists to be the first free Black settlement in America.
3. The creation of Florida's first African American History Study Commission whose purpose is to explore ways to establish a Black Heritage Trail, which would involve sites such as Fort Mose, and to include Black history in Florida textbooks.
4. The Mary McLeod Bethune Scholarship Challenge Grant which provides matching funds to students who attend one of the four historically Black universities in Florida: Florida A & M University, Bethune Cookman College, Edward Waters College or Florida Memorial College.
5. Creation of the Division of Civil Rights within the Department of Legal Affairs for the purpose of investigating discriminatory practices within the judicial system based on race or ethnicity.

6. Legislation broadening the composition of the Judicial Nominating Commissions to include members of racial or ethnic minority groups.

The Florida Minority Medical Education Trust Fund, which enables minority students to pursue a medical education at the University of Florida, the University of South Florida, the University of Miami, or Southeastern University of the Health Sciences. In exchange for the scholarship, recipients must commit to two years of service in a medical corps to provide health care to underserved areas.

I'm hoping people will vote for the candidate with experience, integrity and a proven record of helping people.

If the Black community doesn't wake up and stop dividing itself, we will surely lose on September 1. I have more experience than all the candidates combined in the 23rd Congressional District's race, yet some Black leaders are sitting on the sidelines watching the only chance we have had in 125 years to elect a qualified Black to Congress, go down the drain.

Filing papers to run for office does not make a candidate qualified.

Florida has the largest largest veterans population and the fourth largest World War II veterans group in the United States. As a Vietnam veteran and former Vice Chairman of the House Veterans Affairs Committee, I was proud to secure $1.7 million dollars in state funds which matched with $3.2 million of Federal funds to construct Florida's first skilled veterans nursing home.

I believe in small businesses, they are the backbone of America. To encourage their existence and ensure their survival, I sponsored legislation in the Florida House of Representatives creating the Small and Minority Business Act of 1985. This Act makes loans to Black businesses.

I also sponsored legislation placing the One Church-One Child program in state statute, and increased the funding. This program assists with the adoption of Black children.

With the vote in Belle Glade, I will continue working for my people in Washington.

Don't just hope for a better life - vote for me! Send me to Washington!

Terror - Pedro Pan Y Reencuentro

La Santa Iglesia Catedral de Camaguey fue el escenario de los hechos acaecidos al filo de la media noche, minutos antes de aquel día 25 de diciembre, que desde tiempos inmemoriales había sido noche de amor y de paz. Corría el año de 1960, el primero del arribo de la bestia Castro-comunista a nuestra patria inmolada.

Se celebraba la Misa del gallo, la de la Noche de Navidad, con la Iglesia repleta de fieles entonando cánticos y loas de alabanzas dedicadas a conmemorar el nacimiento del Niño Jesús.

En los alrededores de la Iglesia, agazapados en la sombra de la noche, menos negra que sus almas, se había dado cita armados de sus vesanas, de su asquerosa saliva y de palos y de piedras, aquella plebe precursora de las pandillas de acción rápida que tantas paginas infamantes están dejando escritas en el estercero del castrato que agoniza.

Apercibidos de sus intenciones los feligreses - hombres, mujeres y niños - con el Padre Basulto al frente, puños en ristre, se parapetaron detras de las puertas armados de sillas y de candelabros removidos de los altares, decididos impedirles la entrada y la consiguiente profanación del Templo.

Obedientes a una consigna que - era un disparo al aire - se lanzaron al unisono contra todas y cada una de las puertas, gritando estruendosamente, profiriendo amenazas, insultos y blasfemias. Pero fueron rechazados desde adentro al grito de no pasaran y Viva Cristo Rey.

Estaban logrando su objetivo: sembrar el terror. Como cuando, con el uso de las escaleras del Cuerpo de Bomberos, entraron por el balcon al dormitorio de las niñas y a la clausura de las Monjas del Colegio Maria Auxiliadora. 'Operación' que estuvo dirigida por el Capitán Carlos Hernandez Jefe de la Policia, de tan grotesca recordación.

Como cuando, asaltaron el Asilo San Juan Nepomuceno y con un madero usado como balancin la emprendieron a golpes con la puerta hasta derribarla. De alli salio disfrazada y enferma de los nervios Sor Miguelina Pichardo, la Directora del Asilo.

La noche, las horas preferidas para sus depravaciones, y una miliciana, metralleta en mano, le decía a otra de su misma especie que escudriñara debajo de la cama del Obispo. Y aterrizaron, detrozándole los nervios, al Señor Obispo.

Depravaciones dantescas, planificadas y dirigidas por la cupula tiranizante, se repetían en todos los rincones de la Isla esclava. Y surgio como tenía que ser, el exodo de niños mas grande de la Era Moderna.

Muchas personas intervinieron, jugando el papeleto y la cárcel, para poder rescatar secreta y clandestinamente - en lo que dio en llamarse Operación Pedro Pan, a mas de 14,000 niños de las garras de Castro. Pero los heroes fueron Monseñor Bryan O. Wash, en Miami, y los hermanos Dr. Ramon y Polita Grau Alsina, en Cuba. Y, fundamentalmente, los padres de esas criaturas que al ver algerse el avion en que se iban sentían como que se les desgarraba el corazon rompiendoles el alma.

La Historia nos recuerda Las Cruzadas Infantiles, cuando se levantaron en armas miles de niños durante la Edad Media. En esta Era Moderna, miles de niños desprendidos del calor y del aliento de sus padres, emprendieron una nueva Cruzada, con el arma de la Cruz para conquistar la libertad.

Un grupo de esos niños, 64, vivieron juntos en un orfanato catolico en Pueblo, Colorado. Cuarenta de ellos acaban de realizar un caro sueño. Reunirse de nuevo, como rezan las camisetas que tan orgullosamente han desplegado durante tres días que han estado juntos. Y con ellos, el Padre James Friel, sacerdote a cargo de Sacred Heart Home el orfanato que los dio albergo, el Padre Juan Sierra, la Tia de todos Gloria Nuez y dos matrimonios que los sacaban del país.

Compartimos con ellos el último día en que estuvieron juntos: y pudimos ver, aunque sea por una sola vez en la vida, como los hombres y mujeres "si se pueden volver como niños". A cada vuelta se abrazaban y besaban y se les veía la emoción en sus ojos humedecidos. Los unio el dolor, en el mas impercedero de los inierjos.

Summer program completed

For the past six weeks, 163 youths from the Glades area in grades 8 - 12 have gained skills in various academic areas at Glades Central High School while attending the Positive Connections Program according to Site Coordinator - Mrs. Carolyn J. Brown.

While attending the summer program students were provided instruction using the INVEST in the Future

Computer Program; Applied Communications; Applied Mathematics and Heckley at McCoy's Introduction to Electronics.

The High Tech students got a chance to actually build a radio and TV during the program. This was innovative and they all enjoyed learning about volts and amps and are now capable of making some light repairs on various electrical appliances within the home.

During the afternoon daily students received job training at various non-profit business organizations in the Glades - Ms. Alma Henry provided group and individual sessions discussing issues involving youths today.

The program is funded by the Palm Beach County School Board and the Private Industry Council of Palm Beach County. The program will end for the summer on August 11, with a trip to "Spaceport" in Merritt Island. The entire student body and all staff members as well as the PIC Staff will be attending this trip. The students really enjoyed their summer experience.

Guest meets mayor

"We appreciate your efforts,".....said Mayor Ramon Horta as he shook hands with Tom Pak a Service Project Volunteer from Notre Dame University.

Pak serves community

By Bill Phillips
Staff reporter

Pahokee...The City of

Pahokee Parks and Recreation Department has a Summer Service Project Worker from Notre Dame University this year.

Mr. Tom Pak was born in Seoul, Korea on February 28, 1973. Tom and his family came to the United States on March 24, 1983. He lives in Laguna Niguel, California with his parents Sung Won and Young Ju Pak, and younger sister Sophia.

Tom graduated from Dana Hills High School and is now a student at the University of Notre Dame. He will be a sophomore in the fall, studying philosophy and biology.

This summer, he is enrolled in the Summer Service Project, working with the recreation department of the City of Pahokee.

Tom is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Royal York of Pahokee.

He said, "This is my first time in Florida. It's really hot! Pahokee is different from Los Angeles, really small, but the community seems tight."

Tom said he and about three other people work with approximately 70 kids every day. "We play volleyball, softball, basketball and take them swimming in Belle Glade. The kids really like to dance. I'm not much of a dancer but I enjoy watching them."

About Pahokee and making new friends he says he attends St. Mary's Church with Mr. and Mrs. York and has made friends at the church. He also said the local high school kids were really friendly.

When asked what he thought about the lake, Tom said, "It's really big! I thought it was the Atlantic Ocean when I first saw it. You can see around the lakes where I live. The most beautiful part of Pahokee are the Royal Palm Trees that line Bacom Point Road. There isn't anything like that anywhere. That's what impressed me the most. It's so beautiful and quiet here."

Tom attended last weeks city commission meeting and was introduced to the commissioners by Mr. York.

The commissioners praised the program in which Tom is working and expressed gratitude to Notre Dame for sending, "Such a fine young man to to Pahokee to work with the youth of the city."

Vice-Mayor John Norman said he had noticed Tom working with some of the kids and complemented him. Tom said he had noticed Tom working with some of the kids and complemented him.

Tom likes to play basketball, golf, tennis and volleyball. He played piano for nine years and enjoys playing the guitar. He says his greatest inspiration is his parents.

His words to live by: "Do not pray for an easy life, pray to be a strong person."

Mr. York said, "We hope to keep this volunteer program working with Notre Dame. Maybe we will get another volunteer next year. Maybe it will be Tom again if we're lucky."

Correction

Staff reporter Bill Phillips misspelled the word (debree)-debris in last week's issue of The SUN under a picture. Bill says he has no excuse but is thinking of changing his name to Dan Quayle without the e. He says he was scolded by two of his English teachers, his mother, his sister, and both of his brothers, a "Fate worse than death," and many, many, readers. He also made the mistake in the (fired)-fire department. Thank you for keeping us on our toes.
